By train and steamer, it must be 2,500 miles to the other far-flung station in the Hokkaido.

Forty-two years ago, our Mission's work was started in a stable in Sapporo. Christianity itself was started in a stable. Hokusei Girls' School is far advanced beyond the stable stage. For several years the Mission struggled to get a new location and a new plant. Last Christmas saw the new plant nearly completed. Hokusei stands today acknowledgedly at the head of the list of Hokkaido girls' schools. Graduates are putting Christ into all the new pioneer life of the Hokkaido. One of them is matron in Hokusei dormitory, showing an almost unbelievable efficiency in the loving guidance of the girls. One graduate wants "to be a teacher of Christ," and another wants to be "true big sister to lead the little girls."
