

“The fundamental idea of a school is to educate in the various branches of useful knowledge and thus fit the pupils for the various duties and responsibilities of active life[.]

The religious and spiritual influence brought to bear on the pupils is the mo[st] important thing in the school. Both of these ideas may and should be realize[d] in a good school[.]”